

Bishop Donald Hilliard II addresses the National Week of Prayer for the Healing of AIDS

It was our Lord Jesus Christ, who said inasmuch as you have done to the least of these, you have done it unto me. So, we stand beside those who are infected and affected by AIDS and HIV. We do not stand in judgment but in love, strength and courage.

We also encourage all of humanity to lend your time, talent and treasure in support of causes that speak to this issue with particular attention to pediatric AIDS cases. I also challenge everyone to be sexually responsible realizing that the best prevention and protection is abstinence. While many say this is an unrealistic admonition it is, nevertheless, the admonition of the Lord's church of which we are part. In the face of an epidemic that continues to grow, let us train all of our children to walk in wisdom and protect themselves.

Cathedral International, a relevant church; would like to commend all ministry, charity and civic association who has devoted time to address this growing issue. May God have mercy on all of us and may the comfort that comes through the Lord Jesus Christ and the power of the Blood of the Lamb bring healing to all who look this way in hope.
